

Weekly Cleaning Schedule

Weekly Cleaning Schedule: Day-to-Day Guide

Monday

Monday cleanings should focus on tidying up the home after a busy weekend. You might want to consider doing the following floor-cleaning chores:

- ☐ Mop & wax kitchen
- ☐ Sweep or vacuum the stairs
- ☐ Mop and wax bathroom floors
- ☐ Vacuum living room and bedroom carpets
- ☐ Sweep and mop the entryway - include outside porch

Tuesday

With the week off to a good start, tackling the bathrooms might be a good idea while you still have plenty of energy. Here are the bathroom cleaning chores you should address:

- ☐ Clean the toilets, tubs, and shower enclosures
- ☐ Wipe down the bathroom countertops and cabinets
- ☐ Beat the bathroom rugs
- ☐ Disinfect bathroom surfaces
- ☐ Sweep and mop bathroom floors

Wednesday

Wednesday might be a good day to go through the house and focus on wiping down surfaces. That should include wiping chores like:

- ☐ Wiping window sills and window coverings
- ☐ Dusting off doorknobs
- ☐ Feather dusting ceiling fans, light fixtures, and paintings
- ☐ Wipe down kitchen appliances
- ☐ Wipe smudges off glass surfaces
- ☐ Wipe down kitchen counters and cabinets
- ☐ Dusting furniture

Thursday

Now and then, you need to go through the house and straighten things up a bit. Thursday is a good time to start getting ready for the weekend with these straightening chores

- ☐ Discard old mail, catalogs, and newspapers
- ☐ Check for and discard expired food products
- ☐ Go through the closets and toss old clothes
- ☐ Declutter the living room and bedrooms
- ☐ Clean under the beds

Friday

Notice no mention has been made of doing the laundry. After work clothes have been exhausted during the week, you can make Friday laundry day, which includes:

- ☐ Collect and wash bedding and towels
- ☐ Iron clothes in preparation for the following week
- ☐ Take dry cleaning to the cleaners
- ☐ Remove furniture covers and wash
- ☐ Fold and put away laundry
- ☐ Wipe down the laundry room

Weekends

- ☐ Feather dust living room and dining room furniture
- ☐ Quickly wipe down counters in bathroom and kitchen
- ☐ Take out all of the trash
- ☐ Run the vacuum or a broom through high-traffic areas
- ☐ Check and restock your cleaning supplies if needed
